

Baseball Dragons scrimmage South Warren

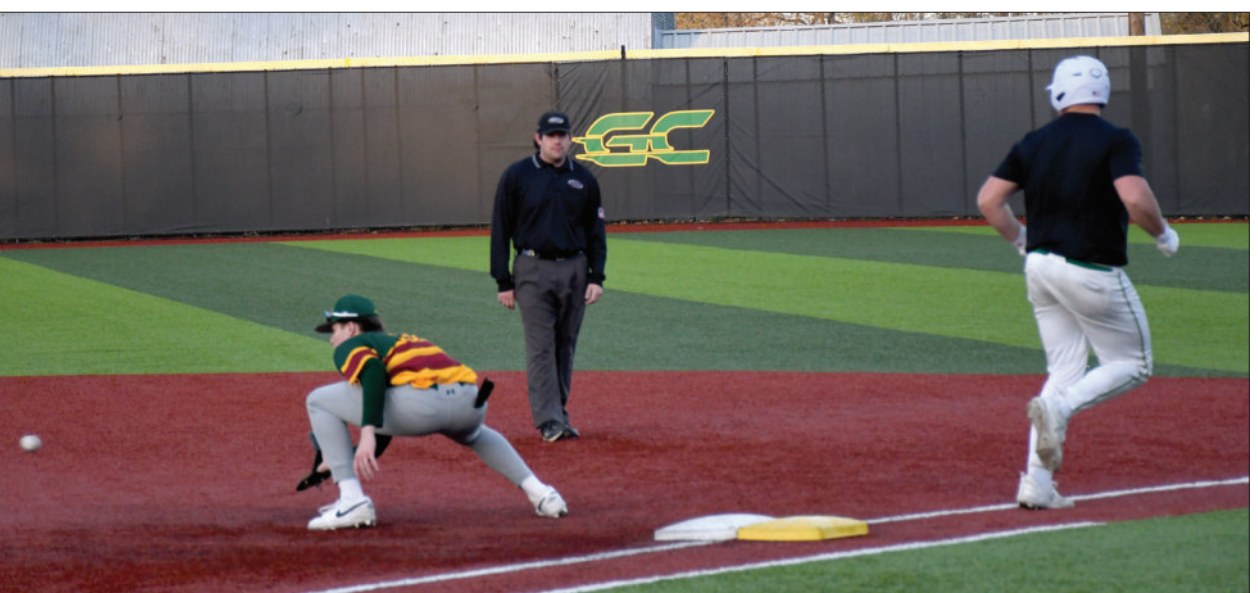

Cash Jones was one of several pitchers that Green County used in their scrimmage against South Warren. The regular season starts with the Dragons playing their first home game tomorrow.

Tatum Durrett got the starting nod in the Dragons' scrimmage against South Warren Friday night.

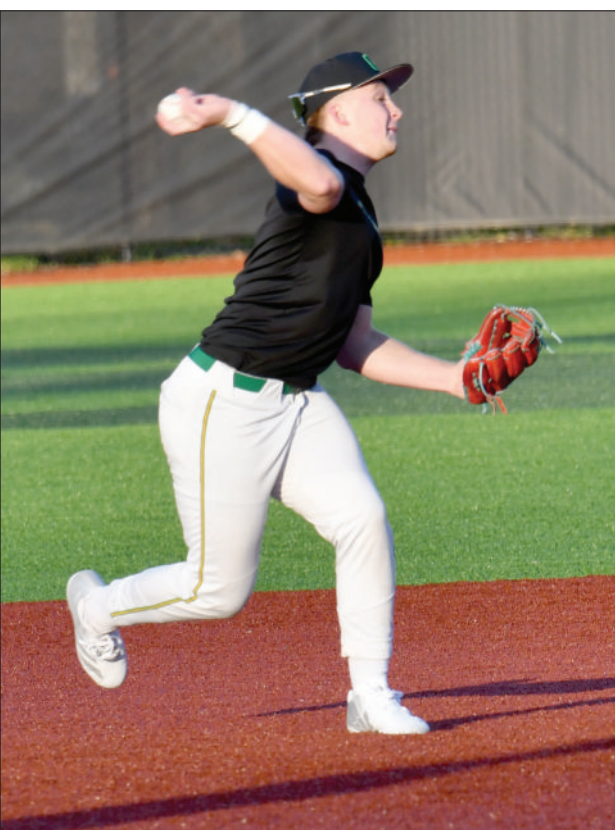

Keelan Curry keeps his foot on the bag while he awaits the throw from left field.

Photos by Dale Curry

Senior Andrew Houk easily beats the throw to first base in the scrimmage against South Warren Friday night.

From his shortstop position, Drew Squires throws out the South Warren batter at first base.

Grif Thomas, a freshman at Green County High School, was one of several pitchers that saw some action in the tuneup for the regular season.

2026 is Orthodyne's 20th anniversary

Helping everyone recover, perform and excel

Get Back To Doing What You Love

We use the latest therapy techniques to help our patients overcome physical obstacles, regain mobility and prevent repeat injuries.

To learn more about our services or to arrange your consultation with a highly trained physical therapist, please contact us today.

ORTHODYNE

111 Well Park Lane, Suite 2
Campbellsville, KY

270-789-6629

MONDAY-FRIDAY
8:00AM - 5:00PM
SATURDAY-SUNDAY
CLOSED

Sports Injuries

Surgical Recovery

Foot & Ankle Injuries

Hand & Wrist Rehabilitation

Vestibular Rehabilitation

Osteoporosis

Jane Todd Crawford Hospital is proud to be part of the scholarship program for Green County High School. Seniors see your guidance counselor for an application. Applications are due April 10, 2026

