The GCMS 6th and 7th Grade Chorus took the stage Monday night at the high school auditorium with a spirited performance of Shrek the Musical: Kids. Under the direction of Mrs. Amy Durham, the young performers brought energy, humor, and heart to the beloved fairytale production.

The show choir is led by Ms. Amy Durham, whose dedication and guidance continue to inspire her students. The evening also featured a special recognition of the program's seniors: Parker Mitchell, Isabelle Rouse, Jada Cross, Daisy Matney, and Miey Smith.

Carleigh Curry commanded the stage as Captain of the Guard in Shrek the Musical, bravely facing off against Shrek in a comical showdown.

The Green County High School Show Choir took the stage with The British Invasion: A Musical Tribute to The Beatles, celebrating the timeless music of the iconic band. The choir performed beloved classics including "Swinging with the Beatles," "Yesterday," "Here Comes the Sun," and more.

Braylee Judd, November Murphy, and Bella Bennett brought the citizens of Duloc to life with a lively number during Monday's performance of Shrek.

Aubrey Ferguson brought Pinocchio to life with charm and humor during Shrek: the Musical.

Hadley Olt brought Donkey's mischievous antics to life, keeping the audience laughing with every move in Shrek the Musical.
