

NIGHT in RIO

A beautifully decorated venue with multi-colored chairs at tables and an opulent overhead flower centerpiece awaited the prom-goers Saturday night. The theme for the event was "Night in Rio."

Photo submitted

Layton Froggett and Brenley Jewell were named the 2026 Green County High School Prom King and Queen Saturday evening.

Many of the couples attending the Green County High School Prom Saturday night were anticipating a night of glamour and glitz with the theme "Night in Rio."

The weather was damp and cool but that didn't stifle the excitement of those attending the Prom this year.

Several people found that the Family and Consumer Science hallway provided shelter from the rain and cool temperatures before they could enter the Prom area.

Good friends gathered outside the school prior to the dance starting.

Long dresses for the girls and gray or black suits for the guys were popular choices this year.

Photos by Dale Curry

Caps and hats were part of the attire for many of the people attending this year's Prom.

Many of the young women attending this year's prom chose brightly colored long dresses for their attire.

A whimsical setting provided a fun area for attendees to pick up food for the night of dancing.