

Several Greensburg Rotary Club members attended the tour of the new Green County FFA Greenhouse Tuesday, April 21.

Greensburg Rotary tours FFA Greenhouse

GCHS third block Greenhouse students were present during Greensburg Rotary Club's visit Tuesday, April 21.

GCHS Agriculture teacher and FFA advisor James Bonta presented an overview of the school's greenhouse, its operation, how it provides a learning environment for students, and a variety of plants offered for sale.

The FFA Greenhouse witnessed a flurry of activity during Greensburg Rotary Club's visit.

Green County High School FFA members Braden Coffey, left, and Jackson Barber assisted Greensburg Rotarian Susan Scott with the plants she purchased.
