

Graduating seniors who attended the 2026 Baccalaureate service Sunday at Green County High School gathered on the stage following the worship service.

Class of 2026 Baccalaureate

A choir of graduating seniors sang a variety of hymns including, "I'll Fly Away," "Victory in Jesus" along with "What a Day That Will Be."

Layton Froggett, a Green County High School senior, preached Sunday evening at the Baccalaureate service. Froggett used scriptures from the Book of Job, the Book of Revelation, and several passages from the Gospels to preach a very blunt sermon in which he reminded everyone in the congregation that at some point each person will die and will spend eternity either in Heaven or Hell.

Senior Class President Mackenzie Johnson welcomed seniors and guests to the worship service Sunday evening at Green County High School's Auditorium.

Bryson Davis opened the worship service with prayer, including giving thanks to God for this class of graduates.

Kennan Penick led the closing prayer and invited others in the congregation to pray at the make-shift altar at the front of the auditorium at Green County High School.
