

Class of 2026

Lots of various colored stoles and cords were worn by graduates indicating the honors and awards they have earned.

Last minute preparations took place just before the students entered the gymnasium for the graduation program.

Graduates listened during the program Friday night as they waited for their turn to walk across the stage and receive diplomas.

Instructor Seth Jones proudly poses with graduates prior to the event Friday evening.

Several students helped each other get their caps on straight for Friday night's graduation.

Reagan Phelps, a 2026 Green County High School Senior Scholar, was the speaker at the GCHS graduation Friday night.

Green County Superintendent of Schools, Will Hodges, addresses the Class of 2026 prior to them being declared graduates.

Bailee Willis helps Emma Emmons get her cap on straight and to make sure it will stay on.

Students killed time waiting for the program to begin Friday night. Some were fearful but most of them were excited for the program to start.

Each graduate wore a stole with "GCHS Graduate" imprinted on the gold stole.

Aiden Pickett's grandfather wore Aiden's letterman jacket as a sign of support during graduation.