"Our entire season was based around the phrase 'stand out' where we learned how to stand out from the crowd, how to set ourselves apart from the rest, how we can be different," said Coach Grant Karnes. "Although the weather was unfavorable, it gave us a perfect scenario to put all of these lessons to the test. While everyone else was complaining about the rain and the cold, we capitalized on it and the results inevitably went in our favor. Green County stood out at the state meet all throughout the day, stood out in every meet through the season, and will continue to stand out in the future."

Sisters Claire and Carly Goff medaled at the state meet. Claire in the 4x800m and Carly in high jump, where she placed third.
