Check up on yourself

Rev. Todd Gaddis

A young boy went into the drug store along the town square where he lived and asked the pharmacist if he could make a phone call. Of course the man said yes. He knew the lad to be a good boy who came from a fine family. Upon dialing the number, the young man asked the lady on the other end, "Mrs. Jones, do you have a yard boy? Oh you do. And you're happy with the work he is doing? That's nice. You plan to keep using him as long as possible? I see. I have to go now ... bye Mrs Jones."

Hearing the conversation, the pharmacist spoke up, "I'm sorry, Tommy, that you didn't get that job."

"Oh, I have that job," replied the boy. "I was just calling to check up on myself."

I have an automobile that uses oil, so I have to keep a constant eye on that. I get my eyes and teeth checked regularly. In addition, I have my primary care doctor take a blood test at least once a year ... sometimes more. So, it only makes good sense that I pause for a spiritual check-up from time to time.

David wisely recognized the need for such an exercise by boldly pe-faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness" (1 John 1:9 [add version]).

Maybe there's someone you need to forgive, but simply can't bring yourself to do it. On the flipside, is there a person or persons from whom you need to seek forgiveness? Could anger and bitterness have gained a stronghold in your life?

Have a love for self, love for money, and love for pleasure become objects of worship? Scripture warns us about these things, particularly as they relate to the end times (see 2 Timothy 3:2-5).

Such matters are usually unpleasant to discuss and think about. Yet they must be addressed and dealt with. If your car's not running right, you go to a mechanic. If your body's not functioning properly, you see a doctor. Likewise, if you're in a state of spiritual malfunction, "Seek the Lord while He may be found, call upon Him while he is near" (Isaiah 55:6 NASB)

On this most important subject, Paul also penned, "Test yourself to see if you are in the faith; examine yourselves! Or do you not recognize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you - unless indeed you fail the test" (2 Corinthians 13:5 NASB)

First and foremost, make sure you pass the test and are in the faith. If so, that means you have Christ in you through the presence of the Holy Spirit. One of His roles is to assist in the examination process, guiding you away from sin and toward righteousness.

This path isn't meant to be restrictive in any way, but rather restorative. Therefore, check up on yourself, take the necessary steps, and experience peace and victory that only comes through Jesus.

Freedom Fest is Friday

James Bonta, a member of the Cattlemen's Association, said that the gates will open about 3:30 p.m. CT that afternoon and the show begins at 5:30 p.m. CT. He also encouraged people to bring their own lawn chairs. "There's a few bleachers but not many," Bonta said, "and especially after the renovation of the Pavilion, there's not a lot of bleacher seating available. The Cattlemen's Association is selling their traditional steak sandwiches and hamburgers and hot dogs. Green County High School's FFA is also selling ice cream that night. While the weather often determines how big the crowd is for Freedom Fest, the free event has had more than 2,000 people attend in previous years. Anne Beard, well-known local soloist, will sing "The Star-Spangled Banner" prior to the fireworks show after dark. Bonta expressed appreciation to many local businesses and organizations who help promote this event and provide a family-friendly show for many people.
