

GCHS DRAGONS HOST BASKETBALL CAMP

The Green County High School boys basketball team hosted the Montrelle Ervin Basketball Camp last week at the Green County High School gym. Campers pictured are first through third graders. For many, it was their first introduction to the game of basketball. Through individualized instruction and age-appropriate drills, campers built confidence while learning fundamental skills in a fun and encouraging environment.

The Green County High School boys basketball team hosted the Montrelle Ervin Basketball Camp last week at the Green County High School gym. Campers pictured are fourth through eighth graders. Young Dragons gained confidence while improving their basketball fundamentals through drills focused on footwork, ball handling, passing, shooting, defense and teamwork. Camp director Montrelle Ervin was assisted by Tony Tonge, Zylar Bardin, Erik Edwards and Cody VanMeter.

Camper Myles Chase practices pivoting during a drill sharpening his footwork.

Camper Colin Judd races down the court, keeping his head up as he looks in the paint for a pass.

Sierra Blaydes races down the court with the ball, weaving through drills and sharpening her ball-handling skills during the Green County High School Boys Basketball Camp last week.

Camper Jess Navalta launches a three-point shot during a shooting drill at the Green County High School Boys Basketball Camp last Monday, showcasing the skills learned throughout the day.

Camper Kayson Houk works on his ball-handling and dribbling skills during Tuesday's Montrelle Ervin Basketball Camp.

Riggs Lee takes a break while waiting for the next drill at Basketball camp on Tuesday.

Photos by Abbey Griffiths