

On Monday, June 22, the GCHS Dragon Cheerleaders, under the leadership of Head Coach Kesha Bagby, hosted a cheer camp for future Dragons in Pre-K through fifth grade. The camp provided future Dragons with the opportunity to learn cheer fundamentals, build confidence, develop teamwork skills, and experience the excitement of being part of the Dragon cheer family.

GCHS Cheerleaders host Youth Camp

Camper Nora Ayala practices being the flyer at the top of a stunt during cheer camp.

Green County High School cheerleader Peyton Helm instructs Ellie Whitlow as flyer Claire Stearns performs a shoulder sit during cheer camp.

Green County High School cheerleader Karsen Willoughby helps camper Ryan Kater practice a handstand during cheer camp.

Green County High School cheerleaders recently hosted a cheer camp at Green County Primary School. Pictured from left are Caroline Hedgespeth, Lydia Quinn, and Everly Craig as they practice pike position during the camp.

Green County High School cheerleader Marlee Dickens celebrates with camper Skylynn Disney as she practices her cartwheel.

Camper Mila Witcher practices her backflipping skill with high school cheerleaders Karsen Willoughby and Alyssa Eatmon.

Green County High School cheerleader Alyssa Eatmon gives camper Whitley Thompson a high five after she successfully masters her cartwheel during cheer camp at Green County Primary School last week.