Bobby Jones Links to manage Live Oaks Golf Club

all connected by pathways designed as much for elegance as practicality. The venue accommodates everything from intimate gatherings to large celebrations, bar service and staging capabilities for seamless operations. The Bunk House retreat, capable of hosting large groups, golf outings, wedding parties, group retreats, and corporate gatherings, turns the property into a self-contained destination where everything you need is at your fingertips.

“Bobby Jones Links has an incredible history for helping operations like ours elevate the customer experience, so we’re extremely optimistic that we’re in good hands to help our staff raise the service at an at excellent venue that people will want to visit at all times of the day. Raising the quality of the food offerings and service at Roosevelt’s gives us an opportunity for a deeper connection with the community and to make Live Oaks the kind of place Kyle always knew it could be,” Merrell said.

Over time, BJJ plans to deepen its impact through culture-based staff training via the Bobby Jones Leadership Center, AI-supported business practices, and programs for customers, employees, and golfers, planting roots that will grow the game and bring the community closer together for generations to come.
