

Hinds holds graduation ceremonies

Graduates received more than 1,500 degrees and certificates at five Hinds Community College graduation ceremonies on May 14.

Among the graduates, 615 graduated with honors; 239 students graduated cum laude, which is a 3.2-3.59 grade point average out of 4.0; 177 graduated magna cum laude, 3.6-3.99 GPA and 199 graduated summa cum laude, which is a perfect 4.0 GPA.

Special to The Clinton Courier

Special to The Clinton Courier

Wesley Shannon of Clinton (left) and Cynthia Wheeldon of Vicksburg were members of the Hinds band on the Raymond Campus, with Shannon playing trombone and Wheeldon playing saxophone. Shannon has a job lined up in HVAC; Wheeldon is headed to nursing school.
