

New "Sharing Library" installed at Clinton Park

Special to The Clinton Courier

Clinton Park Elementary School, the Clinton Public School District's kindergarten and first-grade facility, recently established a "Sharing Library."

Open to the public, the library allows young readers to stop by and get a book and/or leave a book to share with another reader.

Clinton Park Elementary's librarian Haley Carr spearheaded the effort alongside Clinton Park art teacher MacKenzie Cryer.

Clinton Park is located at 501 Arrow Drive. Those leaving books to share with others are asked to limit contributions to books that are appropriate for young readers.
