Brumfield receives MPE scholarship

Special to The Clinton Courier

Ginny Grace Brumfield, a second-grade teacher at Northside Elementary School, recently received a one-thousand-dollar graduate scholarship from Mississippi Professional Educators, the state's largest and premier organization for professional educators. Brumfield was among Mississippi Professional Educators (MPE) members statewide recognized for their commitment to education and professional growth. The scholarship supports Mississippi educators who are pursuing graduate-level studies at colleges and universities across the state.

"I have been an educator for more than sixteen years, and when I decided to take the next step in my professional journey, Mississippi College was the clear choice for me," Brumfield said. "The legacy and reputation of Mississippi [Christian] are undeniable. As an alumna, I know the values the institution works to instill in its students.
