

Clinton volleyball opens registration for Kiddie Camp

Special to The Clinton Courier

Special to The Clinton Courier

Young athletes will have the opportunity to learn the fundamentals of volleyball as the Clinton Public School District's volleyball program hosts its Kiddie Camp on Saturday, June 20, at the Clinton High School gym.

The camp is open to participants entering kindergarten through sixth grade and will run from 8 a.m. to noon. Participants will receive instruction from Lady Arrow volleyball coaches and players, developing skills through drills, games and age-appropriate activities in a fun environment.

Parents can register their child online using the camp registration form available at ClintonArrows.com.
