

Kayla Daniels Performs Friday Night

Nashville recording artist Kayla Daniels will bring her country sound and original music to the Clay County Fair Band Shelter on Friday, July 10, at 6:30 p.m.

AsouthwestMinnesotanative, Daniels grew up surrounded by music, from watching the Grand Ole Opry with her grandparents to singing along to records by Willie Nelson, Tammy Wynette, Tanya Tucker and Simon and Garfunkel.

After earning a degree in agribusiness, Daniels moved to Nashville at age 21 and performed six to seven days a week at venues including Tootsie's Orchid Lounge, Rippy's BBQ and Honky Tonk Central.

Now living near her childhood roots, Daniels continues to travel to Nashville for songwriting sessions and shows while performing for audiences wherever music takes her.
