

You Can't Do Better Than Fair Food

What do fairgoers dream about all winter long? The rides, the grandstand shows, the exhibits?

For many, the answer is easy: the food.

The Clay County Fair food court returns in 2026 with the familiar flavors fairgoers wait all year to enjoy. From corn dogs, funnel cakes and fried bread to caramel apples, cotton candy and buttery corn on the cob, there is something to satisfy every craving.

And of course, no fair food lineup would be complete without a cold cup of lemonade. Always a crowd favorite, it is the perfect way to cool off between events, rides and trips through the food court.

Hough Concessions will also return with popular choices including pork chop sandwiches, hamburgers, caramel apples and cotton candy.

Local organizations will once again help feed the crowds, with food stands from Clay County 4-H, Barnesville FFA, St. John's Lutheran Church, St. James UCC Youth, the Hawley FFA Malt Stand and the Barnesville Boy Scouts.

Whether you stop for a full meal, a sweet treat or a snack to enjoy between events, fair food remains one of the traditions that brings people back year after year.

The fair only comes once a year, so go ahead and enjoy the flavors that make it special. And while you do, take a moment to thank the farmers, ranchers, vendors and volunteers who help bring those favorite fair foods to the table.
