

Cowboy Church, A Service To Inspire All

Sunday morning at the Clay County Fair will offer a church experience unlike any other.

Cowboy Church Services will be held at 8:30 a.m. Sunday, July 12, at the Horse Arena on the Clay County Fairgrounds.

The non-denominational service invites fairgoers to worship in a relaxed setting, surrounded by the sights and sounds of the fair.

Equestrians are welcome to attend from the saddle, while those without a horse can simply bring a lawn chair and pull up close.

Unlike a traditional church service, Cowboy Church incorporates horses into the gathering, creating a one-of-a-kind atmosphere as riders and their horses gather around the speaker.

The service lasts about an hour. Afterward, riders can take part in games and competitions, including horse races by costumed 4-H members.

Round up the family and experience this once-a-year service at the Clay County Fair.

Caring for you where you live, work and play.
