

Red Letter Band Is Back Again This Year

The Red Letter Band will bring its chart-topping sound to the Clay County Fair on Saturday, July 11, 6:30 p.m. at the Band Shelter.

The Red Letter Band entertains audiences in an up-close, personal way. Along with covering a variety of classic country hits, the group has hit the charts. The group's 2014 debut single, "Bring Me," reached number two on the Inspirational Country Music (ICM) chart. Their second release, "All Abandoned," also reached the second spot on the January 2015 charts. Later that year, "Love Will Stay," hit the top 10 and earned the Red Letter Band a nomination for 2015 ICM Band of the Year.

In May 2016, RLB's song "Going Home" reached #1 on the ICM charts (their 4th top ten single). They've been nominated once again for 2016 Band of the Year and 2016 New Artist of the Year. Power Source Magazine has given rave reviews to The Red Letter Band and believes they are one of the top up and coming artists in the nation.

While serving as associate pastor at Reynolds Baptist Church in Long Prairie, Minn., vocalist Josh Anderson created the group when one of his students, Patrick Doyle, suggested that they learn to play the guitar. That grew into a small worship band, which eventually grew into the Red Letter Band.

The full-scale, family friendly, professional sound of The Red Letter Band delivers hours of high-quality, classic country along with original music. The message of the band is what keeps the members engaged and driven to reach people with their music.
