

1. Addisen Cooper

Addisen Claire Cooper is the daughter of Brian and Katie Cooper of Greenfield, Tennessee. During her time at Greenfield School, Addisen maintained all-A's all four years. She participated in Youth Leadership, represented Greenfield School as a SCOPE representative, and earned second place in the National Beta State Convention Performing Arts competition in the Solo, Duo, and Trio Vocalists division. A four-year member of Beta Club, Addisen served as Club President, and was a four-year member of FCA, serving as a leader. She served as Senior Class President, having held Class Officer roles all four years, and was a four-year member of Student Council. Addisen was also a member of HOSA for three years, serving as Club President, and completed Dual Enrollment coursework her junior and senior years. She was a two-year member of FBLA and Spanish Club, served as Captain of the cheerleading squad for four years, was a four-year member of the tennis team, and received the Jim Cawley High School HERO Athlete Award. Addisen also participated in Work-Based Learning through Duncan's Pharmacy. She was the recipient of an outstanding collection of scholarships, including the Barbara Sim Memorial Scholarship, the James Porter Memorial Scholarship, the Greenfield Alumni Scholarship, the Chance Black Memorial Scholarship, the Greenfield Banking Company Scholarship, the Jim Shelton Memorial Scholarship, the Legacy of Leadership Scholarship, the TN Sheriff's Association Scholarship, the June E. Baker Scholarship, and the Dean Scholarship from the University of Tennessee at Martin. After high school, Addisen plans to attend the University of Tennessee at Martin to major in Health and Human Performance with a focus on the Pre-Physician's Assistant track.

2. Jolie Lunsford

Jolie Renee Lunsford is the daughter of Zack and Carla Lunsford of Greenfield, Tennessee. During her time at Greenfield School, Jolie was a member of Student Council, FCA, HOSA, Beta Club, Spanish Club, attended Girls State, and completed Dual Enrollment coursework. She served as Class Treasurer and as Reporter for Beta Club. Jolie completed Honors coursework in Algebra I, English I, Geometry, English II, Algebra II, and English III. A four-year member of the Lady Jacket Basketball team, Jolie was part of two Final Four appearances and one state championship, and was named to the 2026 14-A All Defensive Team. She was crowned Miss Greenfield in 2025, and dedicated time to serving as a positive role model for younger students and a supportive presence in her community. Jolie is an active member of Bethel Baptist Church and its youth group. She was awarded a remarkable collection of scholarships, including the President's Scholarship, the Union TBC/SBC Award, the West Tennessee Heritage Grant, the TN HOPE Scholarship, the Scholars of Excellence Scholarship, the WMU Scholarship, the Hammons Scholarship, the Jim Shelton Memorial Scholarship, the Greenfield Banking Company Scholarship, the Greenfield Alumni Scholarship, and the Him Crawley High School Award Scholarship. After high school, Jolie plans to attend Union University to major in Accounting with a minor in Finance.

3. Avery High

Avery Claire High is the daughter of Donald Ray and Melanie High of Greenfield, Tennessee. During her time at Greenfield School, Avery completed Dual Enrollment courses, attended Girls State, served as a SCOPE Representative, and maintained a place in Top Ten all four years. An active member of the tennis team, Avery was named the Weakley County Tennis Player of the year her junior year. She was a member of Beta Club, Future Business Leaders of America, Spanish Club, Yearbook, served as Senior Representative in Student Council and served as Class Reporter her freshman year and Class Secretary her junior year. Avery was named a Class Favorite her freshman year and voted "Most Intelligent" her senior year. She was awarded the Jerry and Elna High Memorial Scholarship, the Jim Shelton Memorial Scholarship, the Baker's Scholar Scholarship, the UTM Dean Scholarship, and the UTM Elam Alumni Scholarship. After high school, Avery plans to attend the University of Tennessee at Martin to major in Meteorology.

4. Claire McWilliams

Claire Elaine McWilliams is the daughter of Jay and Margrette McWilliams of Greenfield, Tennessee. During her time at Greenfield School, Claire maintained all-A's throughout high school, earned Honors distinction her freshman, sophomore, and junior years, and was a member of the National Society of High School Scholars. A talented artist, she was awarded first place in ceramics at the Weakley County Arts Festival and was a member of the Art Club. She was also a member of Beta Club, Student Council, and the cheerleading squad, and served as Secretary of Student Government. Claire earned the Orange and White Scholarship to the University of Tennessee at Knoxville and also received Chapter 35 and Post 9/11 GI Bill benefits. After high school, Claire plans to attend the University of Tennessee at Knoxville to major in Pre-Veterinary Medicine.

5. AraBella Turnbow

AraBella Grace Turnbow is the daughter of Brianna and Brad Hardin and Ralph and Rebecca Turnbow of Greenfield and Martin, Tennessee. During her time at Greenfield School, AraBella maintained a perfect all-A average throughout her high school career and was a member of the Top 10 all four years. She was a member of Beta Club, FCA, and HOSA, serving as HOSA Vice President her senior year. AraBella also served as Class President her sophomore and junior years before being elected Class Vice President her senior year, and was a Student Council member all four years. She was also a member of FBLA her freshman year, Spanish Club her sophomore and junior years, and participated in the Weakley County Youth Leadership Program her sophomore year. Outside of school, AraBella was crowned Miss Front Street 2025 and enjoys volunteering with the Bethel PA program and local Veteran Services. She was also the recipient of the Jimmy Croom Scholarship, the Greenfield Rotary Scholarship, the Bluegrass Spirit Scholarship, and the William C. Charles Scholarship from the University of Kentucky. After high school, AraBella plans to attend the University of Kentucky to major in Neuroscience on the Pre-Med track.

6. Gracie Booth

Gracie Elaine Booth is the daughter of Jennifer and Brian Booth of Greenfield, Tennessee. During her time at Greenfield School, Gracie maintained all-A honor roll all four years of high school and completed Honors coursework throughout her academic career. She was a member of Beta Club, Art Club, and Spanish Club, and served as Class Secretary her sophomore year. Gracie also served as the school mascot her freshman year and is an accomplished martial artist, having earned her Brown/Black Belt. She has also been an active participant in the Weakley County Playhouse. Gracie was awarded the RAEKAR Scholarship, the Presidential Scholarship, the Alumni Scholarship, the Federal Pell Grant, the TN Lottery HOPE Scholarship, and the TN TSAA Grant. After high school, Gracie plans to attend Austin Peay State University to double major in Criminal Justice and Psychology, with aspirations of earning a doctorate in Psychology.

7. Ngoc Hong Mai Vu

Ngoc Hong Mai Vu is the daughter of Mindy Doan and Van Vu of Greenfield, Tennessee. During her time at Greenfield School, Ngoc maintained a place in the Top 10 all four years. She was a member of Beta Club, Art Club, FBLA, and Spanish Club, and accumulated 94 hours of community service throughout her high school career. Ngoc also earned a Math Craft Certificate and was the recipient of the Global Citizenship Scholarship totaling $17,000. After high school, Ngoc plans to study abroad in Europe and pursue her passion for makeup and skincare marketing.

8. Mark Hasty

Mark Anthony Hasty is the son of Kim Nix of Greenfield, Tennessee. During his time at Greenfield School, Mark maintained all-A's his sophomore and senior years, all-A's and B's his junior year, and earned a place in the Top 10 his sophomore through senior years. Mark completed Dual Enrollment coursework his junior and senior years and Honors coursework his junior year. He was a member of Beta Club, FBLA, Spanish Club, Art Club, and Student Council, and was also active in theater through the Weakley County Playhouse. Outside of school,

SEE GREENFIELD PAGE 8

G CLASS OF 2026 TOP TEN
Greenfield High School

Weakley County Schools

AN X FOR EVERY JOURNEY.

THE X1

THE X3

THE X5

THE X7

Bluegrass BMW

3235 Park Avenue
Paducah, KY 42001
(270) 444-0660
bluegrassbmw.com

©2026 BMW of North America, LLC. The BMW trademarks are registered trademarks.