

Come one and come all to the Hawley Rodeo

The 66th annual Hawley Rodeo, featuring the Barnes PRCA Rodeo and their award-winning animal athletes (bulls, bucking horses, and saddle horses), will burst through the gates on Friday, June 5 and Saturday, June 6 at 7:00 p.m.

Many memorable performances have occurred at the Hawley Rodeo Grounds, nestled among the corn fields and Buffalo River, igniting a passion for riding, roping, and rodeoing in some of our youngest cowboys and cowgirls to ever sit hillside.

The Barnes PRCA rodeo, “where tradition meets thrill,” attracts some of the finest barrel racers, ropers, and bull riders from around the country. These top athletes will compete in bareback riding, steer wrestling, team roping, saddle bronc riding, tie-down roping, barrel racing, and bull riding.

The iconic barn-red gates open at 5:00, just in time for supper from one of several food vendors, including the Hawley FFA Food Stand and a cold beer. From one end of the hill to the other, cowboys and cowgirls will be signing autographs and vendors will be selling rodeo memorabilia. With all that excitement nipping at your boots, you won’t want to wait in long lines. If you order your tickets now at www.hawleyrodeo.com/tickets/ you won’t have to.

Tickets run $20 (children 3 to 12 are $10), plus an online fee. Tickets at the gate will run $25 (children 3 to 12 $15). The American Heroes PRCA offers a military and first responders discount at the gate for $15 with photo ID.

The 66th annual Hawley Rodeo is the place to be both Friday and Saturday night. The hillside is a great place to meet up with the neighbors, just remember to bring a blanket or your lawn chairs.

Edyn Blum wows the crowd with a shoulder stand trick.
