their first steps will be the Hawley Rodeo.

“Edyn opens the act with trick roping. She does many similar tricks that you see guy trick ropers perform, but she does them with feminine touches. She’ll then point at the gate, this is where we speed it up, which is when I fly in on either one horse or Roman riding on two horses, waving at the crowd. If I am on one horse someone will bring in the other horse and Edyn will jump on and we will both take turns trick riding around the arena,” Madison explained.

Madison and Edyn put on an exciting and energetic PRCA performance to upbeat country tunes and in colorful Wild West outfits that will capture every young girl’s heart on the hill. Between the two of them, they will double vault and Texas Skip every corner of the arena, both Friday and Saturday evening.

The Barnes PRCA rodeo, “where tradition meets thrill,” attracts some of the finest barrel racers, ropers, and bull riders from around the country. These top athletes will compete in bareback
