

Twin River Tornadoes 4-H Club

Club Leaders: Kelly Allee, Crystal Drake, Lacy Doolittle and Sierra England

What is 4-H?

4-H is a global youth organization focused on developing leadership, citizenship, and life skills through hands-on learning experiences.

Overview of 4-H

Foundation: 4-H began in the early 1900s, with its roots tracing back to youth programs initiated by A.B. Graham in Ohio in 1902. The first clubs were known as "The Tomato Club" and "The Corn Growing Club"

Mission: The mission of 4-H is to engage youth to reach their fullest potential while advancing the field of youth development. It aims to develop citizenship, leadership, responsibility, and life skills through experiential learning programs

Membership: 4-H has over 6.5 million members in the United States, aged 5 to 19, participating in approximately 90,000 clubs

Key Components

The Four H's: The name "4-H" represents four personal development areas: Head, Heart, Hands, and Health. This motto emphasizes the holistic development of youth

Motto and Slogan: The 4-H motto is "To make the best better," and its slogan is "Learn by doing," reflecting the organization's commitment to practical, hands-on learning

Activities and Focus Areas

Diverse Programs: While 4-H is often associated with agriculture, it now encompasses a wide range of topics, including science, engineering, technology, healthy living, and citizenship
