

4-H Clover Kids Program

Upcoming 4-H kids - ignite their spark

Clover Kids is a fun 4-H program specifically designed for children in kindergarten through third grade. The overall purpose of the Iowa 4-H Clover Kids program is to foster the development of life skills that are essential for the cognitive, social, emotional, and physical maturation of kindergarten through third graders by providing a unique, age-appropriate educational opportunity.

Members:

- Adra Bailey
- Maverick Bailey
- Matthew Baker
- Morgan Baker
- Adalynn Breneman
- Tynsley Case
- Charlotte Eckard
- Maverick England
- Rex England
- Harper Hibbs
- Isaiah Larsen
- Gwen Livingston
- Ty Livingston
- Ainsley Morgan
- Asher Morgan
- Holden Murphy
- Hollen Nachtrieb Faris
- Harley Rice
- Lydia Rich
- Nehemiah Rich
- Lane Weeda

Gwen Livingston

Gwen is the daughter of Andrew and Landi Livingston of rural Tingley. She will be showing an Angus bottle calf in the Pee Wee Wrangler show and exhibit cookies as 4-H Clover Kids member.

Adalynn Breneman

Adalynn is the daughter of Dave and Jenifer Breneman of Middlefork. She will be exhibiting her calf in the Pee Wee Wrangler show at the fair as a 4-H Clover Kids member.

Ty Livingston

Ty is the son of Andrew and Landi Livingston of rural Tingley. He will be showing a bottle lamb in the Pee Wee Wrangler show and exhibiting cookies as a 4-H Clover Kids member.

Tynsley Case

Tynsley is the daughter of Josh and Abbey Case. She will be exhibiting in the Visual Art projects at the fair as a 4-H Clover Kids member.

Harley Rice

Harley Rice is the son of Jake and Melanie Rice of Clearfield. As a 4-H Clover Kids member, he will be participating in the Pet Show.

