Keelee Geneva Pfau

Keelee's favorite memory from high school was when she went to Nationals in 2025. This was her favorite moment because she got to goof off the entire time. They set their fire alarm off, and Mrs. Donovan had to rip it off the ceiling, which broke it. They also pushed their two queen-size beds together to make a "big bed we could all lay in together and watch scary movies." They ordered a giant platter of sushi, filled the ice bucket with it, and did so much more.

Keelee's most embarrassing moment was when she accidentally got her finger in the DQ Blizzard blender, which sprained her thumb. She then had to wear "that big ol' ugly brace on my thumb." Keelee's favorite teacher was Mr. Ofstedal because he was easygoing and great to talk to about anything, and he gives the best advice.

Keelee's advice to underclassmen is, "Don't let fear of embarrassment or loneliness stop you from being you."

Outside of sports, Aiden has a strong interest in sports cards and has been collecting them since 4th grade. He also enjoys video games and used to play a lot of Madden on Xbox with his friends, winning multiple Super Bowls along the way.

In school, Aiden has always been a strong student, maintaining good grades and pushing himself to do his best in all classes. He often challenges himself by taking more difficult courses while still achieving success.

If you want to talk football, Aiden is very knowledgeable about the NFL and keeps up with it constantly. The Broncos have been his favorite team since he was young, and he often says, "The Broncos are way better than the Vikings."

After high school, Aiden will attend basic training for 10 weeks this summer and will be working with the Minnesota National Guard. In the fall, he plans to attend the University of Minnesota Crookston to major in exercise science, with the goal of becoming an athletic trainer.
