

Caden Trent Murphy

By Reilly Templin

Caden Trent Murphy was born at a very young age on June 24, 2008, in Owatonna, Minnesota, to Sheldon Murphy and Chelsie Johnson. He grew up with his older sister, Rylie, and later Mila and Brecken came along. Caden has lived on the outskirts of Lengby since he was about 2 years old.

In his spare time, he likes to hang out with his girlfriend, Gretchen, and his friends. Caden has been active in baseball for most of his life and has participated in "school to work." When not in school, he works for the City of Fosston.

His favorite teacher is Mrs. Donovan because he says she is "chill." Caden's most memorable moment was in 10th grade when he was throwing clay in art class, and his favorite phrase is "cripes."

After graduation, Caden plans to work until he goes to Idaho to become a lineman. After that, who knows? Caden can go anywhere and do what he loves.

Jonah David Noel

By Tanner Vig

Jonah David Noel was born on June 23, 2008, in the Fosston area to a family of five, consisting of his dad, Dave; his mom, Kristi; and his sisters, Hannah and Teegan. He has lived in Fosston his whole life.

Jonah currently works at Hugo's in the meat department with his friends Max Heide and Max Bockness. After high school, Jonah plans to attend M State in Moorhead and major in business.

He has always been interested in basketball and is an avid fan of the Timberwolves. He enjoys being outside, riding his four-wheeler around his backyard. His favorite thing to do is hang out with his friends and go mudding in fields. Another one of his favorite activities is water tubing in the summer at Lengby Lake, followed by stopping at the clinic for a burger.

His advice to underclassmen is to do sports and not quit. He said, "You only get to do high school sports one time, so don't quit them and stick with it." He is going to miss being able to hang out with his buddies after school.

His favorite class in high school was art class with Mr. McColl, and his favorite project was making the Eiffel Tower out of popsicle sticks. His favorite movie is 21 Jump Street, and his favorite actor from that movie is Jonah Hill.

Olivia Chelsey Mae Oliver

By Olivia Oliver

Olivia Chelsey Mae Oliver is the daughter of Sabrina Strutz and Adam Strutz. She says her family plays a big role in why she pushes herself and stays focused on her goals.

Next fall, Olivia plans to attend Northland to begin working toward a career in nursing. She has already gained hands-on experience in the field, working as a CNA at McIntosh Senior Living and now at Essentia's nursing home. "Being a PSEO student showed me how important it is to take school seriously," she said.

Sports were a part of Olivia's life growing up. She played basketball from third through tenth grade and later stayed involved by helping with short-distance track workouts. For her, it was less about the sport itself and more about the people and the memories she made along the way. Some of her favorite moments came from time spent with teammates, especially the bus rides and everyday conversations. She says those are the kinds of things she knows she will miss most about high school.

One teacher who made a strong impact on Olivia was Mr. Berntson. Chemistry became her favorite
