FCFB 109th Annual Meeting

Special Guests Attended

The 109th Annual Meeting of the Fulton County Farm Bureau was held at Big Horse Vineyards in Lewistown on February 9th.

Members were treated to a delicious dinner by Cowgirl Catering of Lewistown, complemented by table wine from Big Horse Vineyards. Fulton County Farm Bureau Board President Keely Wilcoxon opened the meeting, welcoming all members and special guests, including Representative Norine Hammond and Senator Neal Anderson.

She introduced the board members and acknowledged the retiring board members.

Entertainment for the evening was provided by Chico Welch and Nathan Taylor, who performed a mix of folk and blues. Scholarships for this year's Fulton County Farm Bureau Foundation Scholarship were awarded to Ella Eathington from Spoon River Valley High School, Braxton Rock from Canton High School, and Caroline Spangler from Bushnell-Prairie City High School.

Each student will receive $2,000 in scholarship funds for college. Since its establishment in 1995, the Fulton County Farm Bureau Foundation Scholarship has benefited 131 students, providing over $165,000 in awards to high school seniors.

The final recognition of the evening was the presentation of the Leo Sharp Agriculture Service Award to Laura Hardesty-Fidler, highlighting her dedicated service and inspiring others in the farm community.
