

Scholarships awarded at VCHS Commencement Exercises

Dalaney Patterson and Will Calhoun, pictured with VCHS Principal Randy Protz, were awarded the Vandalia Alumni and Friends Foundation Scholarship. They were eighth-grade winners of the scholarship.

Morgan Hebenstreit, pictured with VCHS Principal Randy Protz, was awarded the Denning Family and Charles Evans Memorial Scholarships.

Jack Lewis, pictured with VCHS Principal Randy Protz, was awarded the Edward Mills and Rames Family Scholarships.

Isaac Forbes, pictured with VCHS Principal Randy Protz, was awarded the Vandalia Alumni and Friends Alumni Scholarship.

Will Calhoun (left) and Isaac Forbes, pictured with VCHS Principal Randy Protz, were awarded the Vandalia Alumni and Friends Class of 1987 Scholarship.

Dalaney Patterson and Will Calhoun, pictured with VCHS Principal Randy Protz, were awarded the Vandalia Alumni and Friends Foundation scholarship. They were eighth-grade winners of the Scholarship.

Hannah Brown was presented the Taylor Wollerman Scholarship, presented by Isaiah and Elijah Rikli.

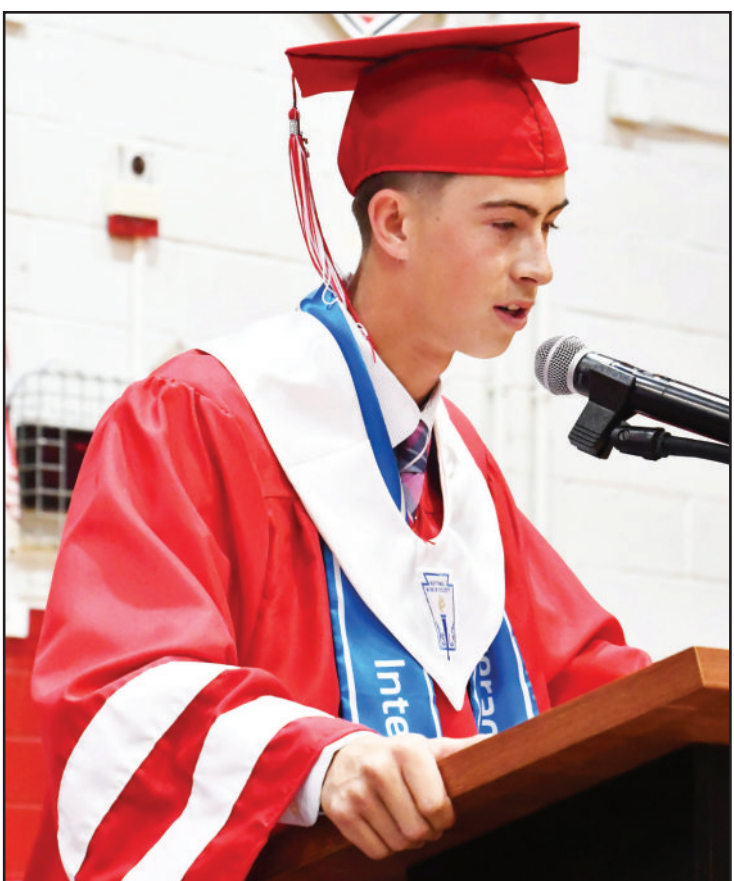

Ayden Pryor, pictured with VCHS Principal Randy Protz, was awarded the Golda Shulman Scholarship.

Brynn Swyers was presented the Vandalia Unit Teachers Association Scholarship, presented by Michelle Kelly.

Dalaney Patterson and Isaac Forbes, pictured with VCHS Principal Randy Protz, were awarded the Joy in the Journey Scholarship, given in memory of Jenna Protz.

Vandalia graduate Jack Lewis presents the commencement address for the class of 2026.

Dalaney Patterson, president of the VCHS class of 2026, leads the class in the turning of tassels at the conclusion of the graduation ceremony.

Photos by Rich Bauer

Look for area sports photos on Facebook at Rich Bauer Sports, etc.