

Cadarius Crump

Tidirious Edwards

Tidirious Edwards is the son of Takisha Edwards and Benny Lewis. During his time in high school, he has built strong relationships with his peers and teachers while developing a hardworking and determined mindset. After high school, he plans to attend Holmes Community College to begin a new journey in the welding field. Tidirious is excited to gain hands-on experience, learn valuable trade skills, and work toward building a successful career. He looks forward to creating a bright future for himself and making his family proud.

Alexia Emel

Alexia Emel, daughter of Ashley Emel, is a proud member of the Class of 2026. During high school, she has maintained A/B honor roll, while participating in basketball for three years and track and field as well. She has been selected to represent her peers on the CHS homecoming court twice and currently holds the title of Prom Queen 2026. After graduation, Alexia plans to travel, work as a CNA, and attend Northwest Mississippi Community College to major in psychology as she begins the next chapter of her journey.

Tyler Joy

Tyler Joy is the 18-year-old son of Angela Bland. He is also the grandson of Linda and Larry Bland and the godson of Linwood Baker and Inetra Polk, all of whom helped shape him into the young man he is today. He is a member of Mount Grove M.B. Church. During his educational journey, he's been on the principal's and superintendent's list. Tyler was a member of the gifted program, as well as the Upward Bound (TRIO) Program. After school he will be attending Base Camp Coding Academy in Water Valley to focus on Computer Science.

Alisha Kee

Alisha Kee is the daughter of Calvin and Greta Kee. During her time in school, she has participated in theater and art, pursuing her passion for creativity and expression. Alisha developed a love for music at an early age, which inspired her to join the theater program. In addition to theater, she has been actively involved in art, where she enjoys exploring the history behind paintings as well as the emotions they convey. Following graduation, Alisha plans to attend Delta State University, where she intends to pursue a career as a music composer and songwriter.

Geqarrious Logan

Geqarrious Logan is the son of Nina Logan. During high school, he was involved in band and powerlifting. Through these activities, he developed discipline, teamwork, and dedication. After graduation, he plans to join the workforce to help make life better for his family.

Zi'mayiah Gary Honor Graduate

Zi'mayiah Gary is the daughter of Rosalind Johnson. Throughout her high school career, Zi'mayiah has maintained a strong academic record and has consistently been recognized as an honor student. Following graduation, she plans to attend Itawamba Community College, where she will major in sports management, before continuing her education at the University of Southern Mississippi.

Malaysha Harden

Malaysha Harden is the daughter of Cynthia Harden. She has distinguished herself through academic excellence, leadership, band, powerlifting, and the school yearbook committee. After high school, she plans to attend Northwest Community College for two years and then transfer to Mississippi State University to pursue a career in Veterinary Medicine.

Jernarious Logan

Jernarious Logan is the son of Calvin Martin and Shaneda Logan. After graduation, he plans to enlist in the U.S Army for a couple years while also pursuing a certification for Diesel Mechanic. He chose this path because he is motivated to build a stable future for himself while gaining skills, experience, and discipline.

Pattrveon Logan

Pattrveon Logan is the son of Angela Logan and Marino Moore. Pattrveon has been a dedicated and active member of the Coffeenville High School football team. He distinguished himself as a standout linebacker since his sophomore year. After high school, Pattrveon plans to attend Northwest Community College, where he will pursue a degree in Agriculture. He also intends to continue his football career at Northwest and aspires to one day play in the NFL.

Samantha Longstreet

Samantha Longstreet is the daughter of Samantha Longstreet and the granddaughter of Mary and John Roberson. Throughout her high school career, Samantha has earned numerous honors for both her academic achievements and her involvement in extracurricular activities, including band, track, cheerleading, and powerlifting. Her dedication, discipline, and well-rounded commitment have distinguished her from her peers. After graduation, Samantha plans to attend Northwest to pursue a degree in criminal justice, with the goal of becoming a forensic specialist.